

Croydon and District National Trust Centre

Working with the National Trust for the benefit of local properties in support of National Trust

Discover something new

Join us at one of our varied winter talks and learn about our other events:-

Wed 17th Oct 2018:

Rugard Kipling: his life and remarkable story by Gary Enstone

Wed 21st Nov 2018:

Cecile Mary Barker: by David Matthews

Wed 19th Dec 2018:

Shirley Windmill by Frank Paine

Wed 16th Jan 2019:

Wandering along the River Wandle by Ray Wheeler

Wed 20th Feb 2019:

Royal Opera House by Nigel Bates

Wed 20th Mar 2019:

Duties of a Personal Protection Officer to the Royal Family by Richard Griffin

Time: 2.00pm for Coffee/Tea, Talks start at 2.30p.m.

Cost: £4 per person payable on the door

Venue: Shirley Parish Hall, 81, Wickham Road, Croydon, CR0 8TB

Buses: 119, 194, 198 stop by the hall, nearby buses are 367, 130 and 466.

For information about us, visit us, ring 020 8657 0158 or E-mail alswan1814@yahoo.com

You do not have to be a member of the National Trust to come to the talks or join the Centre